MEDIA ADVISORY

January 4, 2008

Chief Justice Daniel Eismann to Deliver State of the Judiciary Message January 7th

Idaho Chief Justice Daniel Eismann is scheduled to deliver the annual State of the Judiciary message to the Idaho Legislature on Monday January 7, 2008.

The Chief Justice will speak immediately following Governor C.L. "Butch" Otter's combined State of the State and State of the Budget Address. The Governor will begin at 3:00 pm and it is expected that Chief Justice Eismann will deliver his address at 4:00. Speaker of the House Lawrence Denney will introduce the Chief Justice immediately following the Governor's address.

The addresses will take place before a Joint Session of the Idaho Legislature in the auditorium of the Special Events Center at Boise State University.

Chief Justice Eismann will review the State of the Judiciary over the last 20 years.

NOTE TO EDITORS/ASSIGNMENT EDITORS:

Governor Otter plans to remain in the auditorium after his speech in order to hear the Chief Justice's remarks; you are welcome and encouraged to continue your coverage of the State of the Judiciary message immediately after the Governor's address.
